

Unit 1

The God Who Created Us

“God saw all that he had made, and it was very good.”

Genesis 1:31a

When your family sits down to share God’s Word, use this devotion on its own or go to <https://davidccook.org/echoes/resources> to watch “The God Who Created Us” before doing the devotion together. This devotion works best in September.

The video shows children sharing about some of the things God made. They share examples of His creativity in the world.

- What are some of your favorite parts of God’s creation?

The Bible stories this month all taught us something about our God as the creator. In the first story, God created the heavens and earth, along with day, night, sun, moon, and stars (Genesis 1:1–31; Psalm 111:2, 7). The next story taught us that God created water, clouds, land, and plants (Genesis 1:6–13, 28–29). We later saw God creating animal and marine life (Genesis 1:20–25). Finally, the last story showed God creating Adam and Eve (Genesis 1:26–2:25; 3:8). These stories all teach us that God is the creator of the heavens and earth, plants and animals, and humanity.

Through our stories in this unit, we learn how we can trust God’s plan for creation.

- God is a good creator who doesn’t make mistakes! What are some ways that God created you uniquely?
- Memorize Genesis 1:31a. As a family, talk about different examples of things that God created and made very good: your family, a beautiful sunset, the family pet, etc.
- Spend time at a family meal talking about how God made each person in your family as part of His perfect creation. Give each person the opportunity to share specific examples of how God created the other people in the family. (Examples: God made my sister really smart; He made my brother really kind; He made my mom patient, etc.)

End with a short prayer. God, help us to remember that we can trust Your plan for creation. Thank You for Your perfect plan for the world. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

Unit 2

The God Who Corrects Us

“Never tire of doing what is good.”

2 Thessalonians 3:13

When your family sits down to share God’s Word, use this devotion on its own or go to <https://davidccook.org/echoes/resources> to watch “The God Who Corrects Us” before doing the devotion together. This devotion works best in October.

In this video, we learn that God corrects us because He loves us. While it’s not usually fun to be corrected, God’s correction helps us to grow and become more like Him. In this video, the children share ideas for how God helps them learn from their mistakes.

- What are some things you’ve been corrected for by God, a parent, or a teacher?
How did that correction feel?

Our Bible stories this month showed us how God corrects us because He loves us. In our first story, we saw God correcting Adam and Eve’s sin (Genesis 2:15–17; 3:1–24). In another story, we learned how Cain refused to face his wrongdoing in the death of Abel (Genesis 4:1–16). Then we heard about how God saved Noah and his family from the flood (Genesis 6:9–7:24). Finally, we learned that God promised Noah not to flood the earth again (Genesis 8:1–9:17).

From our stories in this unit, we see that God helps us to grow and reflect His image in the world.

- What are some ways you can reflect God’s image by showing love for your family this week?
- Memorize 2 Thessalonians 3:13. Have each family member silently choose something good they will do to show God’s love to someone today.
- Set aside a family prayer time each day this week. Each day pray for each person in your family to choose to follow God’s correction. Lift up specific requests each member may have. Let family members take turns being the prayer leader each day.

End with a short prayer. God, thank You for your loving correction! Help us to never grow tired of doing what is good. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

Unit 3

The God Who Calls Us

“Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my Savior, and my hope is in you all day long.”

Psalm 25:5

When your family sits down to share God’s Word, use this devotion on its own or go to <https://davidccook.org/echoes/resources> to watch “The God Who Calls Us” before doing the devotion together. This devotion works best in November.

Throughout the video, we see children talking about the different ways God speaks to them. They also share examples of what kinds of things God calls them to do. God speaks to us and calls us to live in ways that honor Him!

- What are some things God might call you to do?

This unit’s Bible stories showed us how God speaks to people and calls them into action. In the first lesson, we talked about Abraham being called by God to begin a new nation (Genesis 11:31–12:9; 17:1–8, 15; Hebrews 11:8). In another lesson, we learned how God called Abraham to settle a quarrel (Genesis 13). In the following week’s lesson, we learned about Abraham believing the impossible promise of a son (Genesis 18:1–16; 21:1–6). Then, we saw how Abraham was called to sacrifice that very same son (Genesis 22:1–19). In the final lesson, we discovered that God led Abraham’s servant to Rebekah (Genesis 24).

Through all these stories, we learn that God speaks to us and leads us!

- How does God speak to and lead the people in your family?
- Memorize Psalm 25:5. As a family, discuss ways that each family member can seek God’s truth and follow His ways. How can each person be led by God this week? Thank God for the hope we can find in Him!
- As a family, talk about different ways God might speak to us. (Examples: through His Word, through other people, through prayer, etc.). As a family, decide to regularly listen for ways that God might be speaking.

End with a short prayer. God, help us to listen to Your voice and direction! Thank You for Your wisdom and guidance. In Jesus’ name. Amen.
